

Travelling to Dewsbury & District Hospital

By Rail & Bus: Dewsbury is the nearest mainline railway station, with Dewsbury Bus Station only a few minutes walk away. On leaving the station cross the pedestrian crossing and walk down Wellington Street. Turn right and immediately left and the Bus Station is straight ahead.

Services 213, 215, 268 and 280 run approximately every 10 minutes and stop in the grounds of Dewsbury & District Hospital.

By Road: The Hospital is conveniently located equidistant from the M1 and M62. Situated to the northeast of Dewsbury town centre, on the A638 Halifax Road, Dewsbury & District Hospital is easily accessed via the UK motorway network.

From the M1: Leave at Junction 40 and join the A638 west (signposted Dewsbury). Travel for approximately 4 miles to Dewsbury town centre and join the Dewsbury Ring Road northwards. Take the fourth turning right onto Halifax Road, A638. The entrance to the Hospital will be seen after 1 mile on the left.

From the M62: Leave at Junction 28 and join the A653 south (signposted Dewsbury). Travel for 4 miles to Dewsbury town centre and turn right onto the Dewsbury Ring Road. Take the third turning right onto Halifax Road, The entrance to the Hospital will be seen after 1 mile on the left.

On Arrival: Visitors are requested to report to the Reception of the Ward or Department they are visiting. Parking is available in the main car park at the front of the Hospital.